

California Deaf Education Resource Center MONTHLY WORKSHOP

“Audism & Deaf Community Cultural Wealth”

Presenter's Background:

Dr. Flavia S. Fleischer is the chair of the Deaf Studies Department at California State University, Northridge. Deaf Studies has been a central theme in Flavia's life, where Deaf education, Deaf Studies issues, and Deaf activism were constant areas of discussion.

Dr. Will Garrow is a full time faculty member in the Deaf Studies Department at California State University, Northridge. His research and activism focuses on how the intersectionality of audism and the other-isms impact our society and specifically the Deaf community.

This workshop will explore Deaf Community Cultural Wealth DCCW and its six capitals: linguistic, social, familial, navigational, aspirational, and resistant. Each of these capitals will be explained and examples will be given as to how parents can work with the Deaf community by utilizing and supporting these capitals. By incorporating what Deaf community has utilized, we are then better able to guide our children to become leaders.
