Irma Sanchez is a Latino mother of three amazing, young Deaf men in the ages of 21, 19, and 14 years of age. She has worked as a Parent Links and D.E.A.F Project parent mentor for the past five years. She has done presentations for families raising DHH children, participated in parent panels and numerous state wide conferences as well as hosting several events. She along with her husband have founded the non-profit organization Deaf Latinos, where they are dedicated to working with families to promote awareness of the Latino culture to DHH children and their families.
